Full Reading – 1 Kings 17:8-24

Elijah & the Widow of Zarapeth

Week of June 5–12, 2016

The Rev Woldy Sosnowsky Preaching

The Church – Past, Present & Future

Throughout the Christian year of 2016, until Advent, we will be focusing on the theme of 'Following Jesus in a Fearful and Divided World.' Our Scripture readings and Memorize & Ponder texts will be taken from the Gospels of Luke and John. We invite you to listen for what the Spirit is saying in the text, then question how those insights might change the ways you see things and act in the world. Share your thoughts during the week on the meaning the Spirit creates for you in this text by posting a comment on our website – www.brentwoodpc.ca.

Ponderings for the Friends of Jesus

Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us provoke one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together … (Hebrews 10:23-25a)

Brian is away next Sunday on study leave in Montreal and the Rev Woldy Sosnowsky will be leading in our Sunday morning worship.

Woldy became a minister after serving for many years as an educator, latterly at Keith Lynn School in North Van. Brian got to know he and Cathy well when they were all active members of West Vancouver Presbyterian Church. He was minister in Salmon Arm, BC, before 'retiring' back to Vancouver. He is on the Hummingbird Ministries Council. Woldy and Cathy are both active in the Compassionate Friends movement, a support group for parents whose children have died. Woldy is on your right in the picture.
