Memorize & Ponder Text – Luke 19:35

(Full Reading – Luke 19:28-40)

Week of Mar 13-20, 2016

What Kind of Leader?

Luke 19:35 (NRSV)

Then they brought it to Jesus;
after throwing their cloaks on the colt,
they set Jesus on it.

Throughout the Christian year of 2016, until Advent, we will be focusing on the theme of 'Following Jesus in a Fearful and Divided World.' Our Scripture readings and Memorize & Ponder texts will be taken from the Gospels of Luke and John. We invite you to listen for what the Spirit is saying in the text, then question how those insights might change the ways you see things and act in the world. Share your thoughts during the week on the meaning the Spirit creates for you in this text by posting a comment on our website – www.brentwoodpc.ca.

Ponderings for Daily Theologians

Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us provoke one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together ... (Hebrews 10:23-25a)

A Word for Daily Theologians = Leader

I have been taking a course on leadership at Vancouver School of Theology this term.

The topic has fascinated me for years.

I've practiced it, with some success.

I've researched it, with endless fascination.

I've written about it, with some coherence.

But there is always more to learn.

Here's my working definition at this point:

Those entrusted with leadership by Christ's church convene conversations about participating in the Commonwealth of God.

Give the various elements of this definition
some consideration this week.

Think about leadership being entrusted to us by Christ,
happening in conversations,
and resulting in participation
in the Commonwealth of God
