Memorize & Ponder Text – John 21:12

(Full Reading – John 21:1-19)

Week of Apr 3 - 10, 2016

Invited to Breakfast

John 21:12 (NRSV)

Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.”
Now, none of the disciples dared to ask him,
“Who are you?”
because they knew it was the Lord.

Throughout the Christian year of 2016, until Advent, we will be focusing on the theme of ‘Following Jesus in a Fearful and Divided World.’ Our Scripture readings and Memorize & Ponder texts will be taken from the Gospels of Luke and John. We invite you to listen for what the Spirit is saying in the text, then question how those insights might change the ways you see things and act in the world. Share your thoughts during the week on the meaning the Spirit creates for you in this text by posting a comment on our website – www.brentwoodpc.ca.

Ponderings for Daily Theologians

Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us provoke one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together ... (Hebrews 10:23-25a)

A Word for Daily Theologians = Nourished

Last week Jesus invited us to supper and nourished us there for our mission in the world.

This week, we read of another invitation.
This one is to breakfast.
The disciples have returned to the daily work they did before following Jesus.
It was almost as if that whole enterprise
had been a bad dream,
all their hopes dashed on a cross.

And now here he was, in their midst again,
offering them nourishment again.
No question about who this was.
They all recognized him.
Their lives were forever changed.

What changes will this invitation inspire in you?
