

Flourishing as the Friends of Jesus (who really like jazz!)

Jan 25, 2017

No self-respecting Scot can let today pass without mentioning that this is Robbie Burns' birthday.
All around the world,
and I do mean all around the world, people gather to pay tribute to this poet and collector of folk songs.
They eat a bit of haggis, drink a bit of whiskey,
and sing and dance a lot.

There were two books in my Nana's house that I remember clearly - the Bible and the Collected Poems of Robert Burns.
For her, both were filled with 'gumption.'

That's a gritty Scots/English word that came into common use in the late 1700s.
It means guts, bold initiative, resourcefulness, resilience, spunk, smarts, and ingenuity.
That's something jazz musicians need to make it in the business these days.
It's something the Rossi Gang knew they would learn when they went to New Orleans.
It's something Brentwood is learning in its work with the jazz community.
And it's something Nana found in both Burns and the Bible.

What Is This Evensong Thing?

Evensong is a service of worship,
a means of paying tribute through song and prayer to the divine energy that we Christians consider the source of our being.

We come to know the love that inspires this God most clearly in the life of Jesus, the One through whom God redeemed
the beloved creation to its original purpose.
That love continues to inspire all of us through the work of God's Holy Spirit, a dynamic we believe is at work in our world whether we recognize it or not.

Worship is an experience where this God encounters us with that love in ways most suited to nourishing our flourishing.

The evensong tradition of worship can be traced back to the Jewish synagogue, then through Christian monasteries, then through the Anglican Prayer Books of Thomas Cramner (1489-1556).

It has been adapted and improvised on down through the ages,
but always with the intent of refreshing the soul and informing the mind.

We trust something of this kind of inspiration will be yours this evening.

Thank you so much
for blessing us with your presence this evening.
