Reimagining the Kingdom Gospel

Memorize & Ponder

for the Week of May 27, 2018

(Full Readings – Ps 47:1-9, Jer 31:31-34, & Matt 4:17&23)

Matthew 6:10 (NRSV)

Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Throughout the coming Christian year, from Advent 2017 to Advent 2018, we will focus on the prophetic witness in the Hebrew Scriptures, what many Christians call the Older Testament. We will connect that prophetic literature with the teachings of Jesus and his early disciples/friends that are found throughout the writings of the New Testament. As a community, we will ponder the prophetic tradition's message for us in our age and context, just as Jesus did in his.

We invite you to listen for what the Spirit is saying in the text, then question how those insights might change the ways you see things and act in the world. Use the question on the back of this insert to provoke your thinking. We look forward to hearing the about those insights during our 'Words to Ponder' conversation in the worship service.

Ponderings for the Friends of Jesus

Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us provoke one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together ... (Hebrews 10:23-25a)

A Word for the Friends of Jesus to Ponder = Kingdom

We invite you to give this word and the text/passage some prayerful pondering this week. By taking a few minutes each day to focus on these words in the context of the readings and your life, the Spirit will engage more deeply with you and nourish you to flourish in the grace of Jesus Christ. Do not hesitate to invite others into the conversation.

Here's a question that might help to focus your ponderings:

What signs of the workings of God's kingdom do you sense in your life?

Notes for participating in Christ's mission this week:

Remember to pray for the faithfulness of Brentwood in its mission this week.
